

FORECAST OF WET AND DRY CONDITIONS DURING THE THIRD DEKAD (21-31) OF OCTOBER 2018

Issue Number: 02/2018

Release Date 20/10/2018

Highlights

The total rainfall forecast shows that during the third dekad of October 2018, bulk of the of the SADC region is expected to receive rainfall ranging from 0 to 10mm while bulk of Angola and DRC expected to receive rainfall ranging from 21 to 60mm. The Standardized Precipitation Index (SPI), show bulk of South Africa and northern DRC are expected to experience extreme dry condition, while extreme wet conditions are expected over bulk Namibia and south eastern Tanzania.

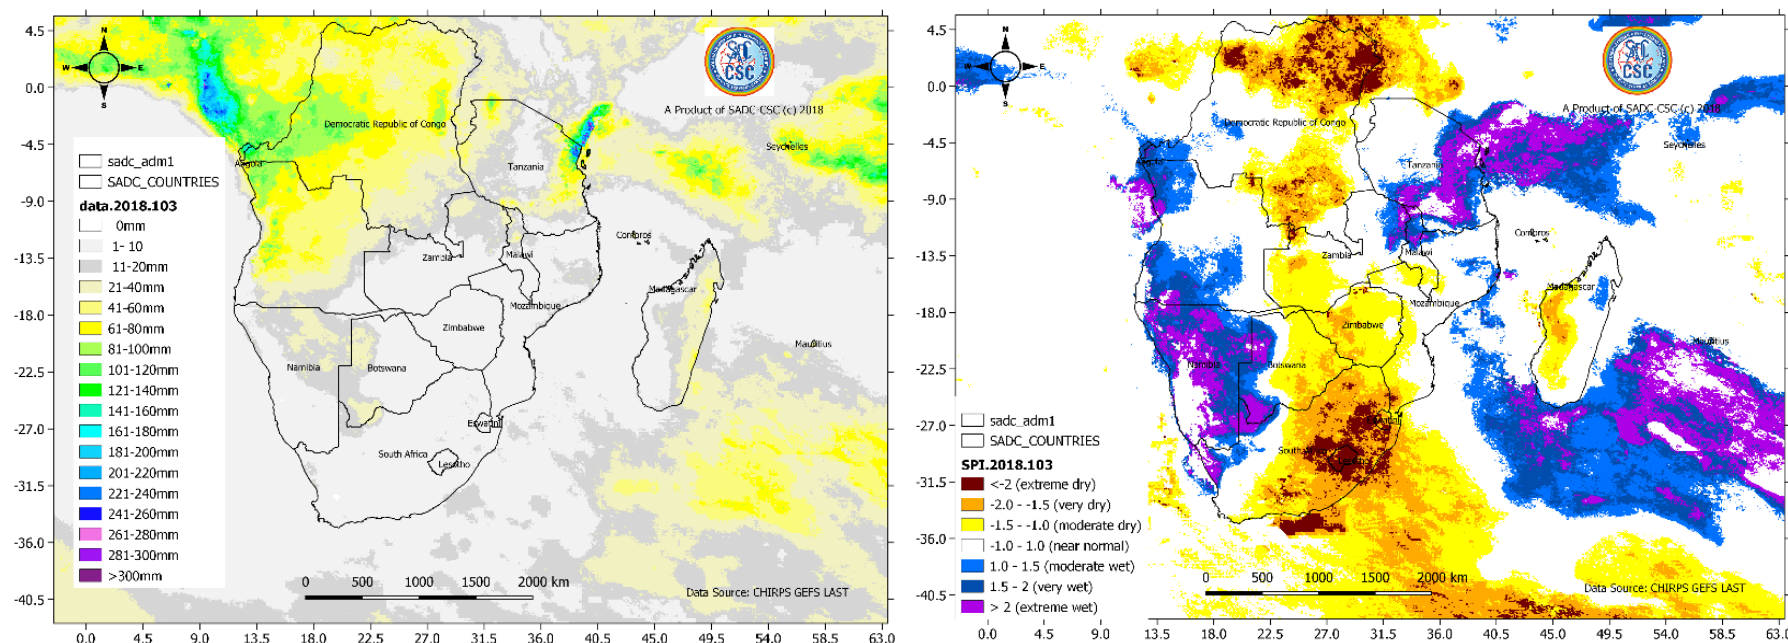

Figure 1: Total rainfall during the third dekad (21-30) (left) and SPI (right) for the third dekad of October 2018